

Alicia in the WILD!

Inspirational Keynote Speaker.
Wildlife & Fire Photographer.

Unlock Nature's Power for a Better You!

Award-winning Speaker and Photographer Alicia White ignites a passion for nature's wonders through captivating images and exhilarating tales of wildlife encounters. A seasoned adventurer with decades of immersing herself in the natural world, Alicia has embarked on over 20 expeditions to Yellowstone National Park. Her captivating stories of wild, close encounters with grizzly bears, bison, and other wildlife serve as life lessons that can be applied to many aspects of life.

Alicia's passion for nature is contagious, and she inspires others to get outside and discover the joy, beauty and benefits the natural world has to offer. She provides proven strategies on how to calm the chaos and helps attendees experience the transformative power of nature.

Alicia is a masterful speaker who commands the room, grasping the attention of everyone in the audience. She's insightful and witty, inspiring and funny. She's able to seamlessly get her point across through captivating storytelling, using the lessons of nature. The value Alicia offers is well worth the investment. I highly recommend her for your next event."
